Check out my page on Google + where I share new and hot apps, games, and technology plus the great tutorials I post there! I have been asked to do an article on the best browser for Windows 7. I was one of the few to use Chrome and Opera for the browser. Chrome is a fast, fast browser and I still prefer it. Opera's browser is the fastest on the market today, and it's a good browser, but it doesn't compare to Chrome. That being said, Chrome is a popular browser, and it's worth taking a look at. It does have some minor quirks, but for the most part, it's a good browser. Firefox is another browser that has been growing in popularity over the past few years. It still has its drawbacks though. Firefox is often referred to as the Mozilla browser. In Firefox, you can move all your extensions to the firefox directory to have them loaded everytime Firefox is started

What would you do with an extra 16 hours a week? Ever wonder what you could do with the time that's not being spent on Facebook or Twitter? Imagine how much extra time you could save with Site Blocker — a neat Chrome extension that blocks access to certain websites. With Site Blocker, it's easy to add and remove websites to your block list. You can block sites for only a limited amount of time or for a specified amount of hours. You can also choose to either block or allow access to a site. You can also set a password that would require a username and password for all added sites. 'Site Blocker' is highly configurable, and the settings can be changed according to your needs. You can also specify the time in which you want access to blocked sites to be available. Enjoy What do you think about Site Blocker? Would you like to have access to certain sites after a specified time period? How much time do you waste on social media and would you want to give it up? I have been following a lot of youtubers lately, and I have noticed that some of youtubers have started to experiment with featuring their girlfriend or wife in their videos. This has sparked a debate on whether it is okay to post pictures of your significant other online, or if you can never know who could be viewing your private material. In this video, we are going to look at the Pros and Cons of having your Girlfriend or Wife in your Videos. Let me know what you think about the pros and cons in the comments below.
