Convert PPT for PowerPoint is a useful application designed to allow the conversion of PowerPoint presentations into images or self-running executable files that can be opened on any computer, without having PowerPoint installed. Included in the Office suite, PowerPoint is one of the most popular presentation designing software, but opening PPT or PPTX files cannot be done in its absence. Therefore, sharing the created presentations requires PowerPoint to be installed on the target computer. Convert PPT for PowerPoint aims to solve this inconvenient by immediately converting presentation files to EXE or various image file types (GIF, JPG, PNG or BMP), which can be easily opened on any Windows PC, without the need of additional software. It is compatible with all PowerPoint versions. The user-friendly application comes in the form of a wizard, guiding you all the way through the conversion process, throughout each necessary step. Aside from the aforementioned graphic formats, the application supports RTF or HTML documents (HTML v3 and HTML dual files are also available). Additionally, your presentation can be assigned a locally stored icon and a music file to be used as soundtrack during the playback. Slides can be changed on mouse click or every a few seconds and a looping option is also available. An utility such as Convert PPT for PowerPoint is necessary for situations when you want to distribute or share a PowerPoint presentation, a tutorial or an usage guide. Its advantage is that it eliminates the need to have PowerPoint installed on a PC in order to watch a presentation.
